SECURITY INFORMATIONDaily Diary, 17 June 1952*****
NOTICE
*****

* All persons are reminded that the removal of enclosures or the * clipping of documents on routing through the office constitutes
 * a security violation as serious as the loss of the document
 * itself. Reproduction facilities are adequate to care for normal
 * needs. When no more than ten pages of a document are desired
 * for retention the "autostat" machine in 1069 "1F" may be used.
 * In other cases the reproduction facilities of administrative * services will be used.

* [REDACTED] of Management is studying certain management problems
 * in ORR. She is working out of S/Ad and will spend some time
 * visiting in ORR Divisions.
